LOUISE FARRENC

Parisian-born Jeanne-Louise Dumont (1804-1875) showed an obvious musical gift at an early age, and received excellent training in both piano and composition. She married Aristide Farrenc, a flautist and music publisher, in 1821 and enjoyed a long and distinguished career as a pianist, composer, and pedagogue.

Most of Louise Farrenc's compositions are for solo piano; other works include three overtures, three symphonies, 4 piano trios, 2 sonatas for violin and piano, a cello sonata, a string quartet, 2 piano quintets (piano, violin, viola, cello, bass), a sextet, and a nonet. Most of her piano and chamber compositions were published by Aristide Farrenc, and many were simultaneously printed by other publishers in England and Germany. However, none of her orchestral music, including the Première Overture, was ever published. This piece was composed in August, 1834. It was performed at least once, in 1835. The manuscript of the full score is in the Bibliothèque Nationale in Paris.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Important: in a few places, contradictory dynamic markings are shown. Those in parentheses are the editor's. The conductor should clarify which dynamic markings are desired. All tenuto and staccato markings are editorial.
